JUPITER ECOLOGY FUND

• LAUNCHED IN 1988 •

Highly successful partnerships can be found throughout nature. With the health of the global economy so closely linked to the health of our environment, we believe there are ample opportunities for investors to align their interests with those of Mother Nature. Since 1988, we've been investing in companies whose core products and services address global sustainability challenges. By focusing on companies creating positive ecological outcomes, our Environmental Solutions team is dedicated to seeking long-term sustainable investment returns. We call this human advantage 'the value of active minds'. To discover more reasons to consider an allocation now, visit jupiteram.com

As with all investing, your capital is at risk.
