September 2022 Volume CXCVI № 711

17 Editor’s Letter
18 Agenda
September highlights, including the Armory Show and Frieze Seoul 25 Around the Galleries Samuel Reilly previews BIAF in Florence, plus our pick of shows and fairs to see this month 31 Letter
Andrew Russeth visits the Hawaii of South Korea, Jeju Island 35 Fresh Perspective Hattie Judah asks if artists who are parents get a raw deal 39 Art Market
Jane Morris wonders why the market is ignoring Documenta

45 Collectors’ Focus Emma Crichton-Miller on Tuscan sculpture of the early Renaissance 48 Inquiry Layli Foroudi considers the City of Paris’s quandry about a neglected colonial garden
54 Architecture
William Aslet on the 400th anniversary of Inigo Jones’s Banqueting House in London
57 Food
Thomas Marks revisits the first gastronomic map of France 59 Wine Christina Makris explores the history of the champagne coupe

Features
62 States of Play
Emille Bickerton talks to Annette Massager about the art of making the strange familiar 68 Set in Stone Alessandra Griffio tells Apollo how a dazzling pietra dura tabletop once underscored Medici might 74 Restored to Glory
Susan Moore finds new connections between contemporary art and Old Masters at Palermo’s Palazzo Butera 82 Refashioning the Garden Jill Sander tells Edward Behrens how her garden in Hamburg updates English tradition 92 Local Heroes Michael Prodger peruses the outstanding collection of Peruginos at the restored Galleria Nazionale dell’Umbria