

IndependentNurse

September 2022 | £3.99

For primary care and community nurses

www.independentnurse.co.uk

IN THIS ISSUE

News

Therese Coffey appointed Health Secretary

Therese Coffey has been named as the new Health Secretary, replacing Steve Barclay p4

News

Schoolchildren 'targetted' by e-cigarette firms

There has been a drop in numbers of children taking drugs and smoking but a rise in vaping p4

News

Malaria vaccine has world-changing potential

A new vaccine provides as much as 80% protection against malaria p5

News

Ad campaign demands change from new PM

RCN pay campaign adverts were targeted around Westminster as Liz Truss faced her first Prime Minister's Questions p5

RESOURCES
Events and training for primary care nurses
p30

Adipose in Candyland: the rise and rise of the new diet pills

Sensible eating and physical activity are the regular prescription for obesity, but is it enough? Mark Greener looks at the latest research into the controversial topic of weight loss drugs p24

Caring for refugee families in the UK - The nurse's role p6

Encouraging uptake of the HPV vaccine: A guide for nurses p16

Managing food allergies in children and young people p20