Errolllyn Wallen

The composer tells us why sea, sky and solitude are key to her magical soundworld

The Requiem
The art of death: from violent Verdi to blissful Brahms

Also in this issue...
Mark Elder reflects on his glorious Hallé career
What larks! Are birds our greatest composers?
Why the classical music world is heading to Ibiza
100 reviews by the world’s finest critics

Recordings & books – see p110