The Main Stories

68 Vision Thing: Michel Gondry

Whether documenting Dave Chappelle's hip hop block party or crafting career defining music videos for Bjork and Kylie, the maverick film director Michel Gondry likes to keep the competition on their toes. Even when he's asleep.

74 Verbal Warfare: Baby Cham

After a decade of setting dancehall sound systems on fire, Baby Cham is gearing up for a chart takeover thanks to the anthemic "Ghetto Story". When his live show hit London, Cham invited Dazed along to witness the 85 riddim take control.

SPECIAL SECTION: KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

80 Know Your Rights

Six of today's most innovative art directors interpret the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, including Ed Fella, Tomato, Trevor Jackson and So-Me.

87 Demand Freedom: John Pilger

In this exclusive extract from his new book, the veteran campaigning journalist argues it is "our" governments that are the cause of much of the world's hardship.

92 Make Your Mark: Million Faces Petition

The global arms trade is out of control. Add your face to the world's largest photo petition and demand tighter controls on the sale of small arms worldwide.

96 Control Arms Now: Congo in Crisis

With gang rape and child soldiers commonplace, bullets and weapons manufactured in the West continue to fuel the conflict in one of the world's poorest countries.

In Conversation: Art & Politics

90 Gael García Bernal & Hernando De Soto on revolutionising the world's poor.

102 Bai Ling & Sharon Hom discuss China's progress towards social reform.

108 Matthew Herbert & Tim Finch on making music, border control and asylum.

112 Dead Prez talk about race, death row and the case of Mumia Abu Jamal.

116 Vivienne Westwood discusses the campaign to free Leonard Peltier.

104 On the Campaign Trail with Subcomandante Marcos
Latin America's most famous guerrilla leader comes down from the mountains with his new, non-violent political movement, in preparation for the Mexican elections.

110 Gimme Shelter: Life in Kibera

Magnum photographer Jonas Bendkisen spends a month in Kibera, Africa's largest slum, documenting the stories of incredible human determination.

113 Human Traffic: Sex Slavery UK

As an increasing number of women are being trafficked and sold into a suburban sex trade in Britain, The Poppy Project struggles to provide a support system.

114 The Forbidden Team: Tibet's National Football Side
Between pitch invasions by sacred cows, an ultrasonic monk and players who can't, well, play, for the Tibetan national football team, it's a triumph simply to exist.
