FEATURES

■ RESIGNATION OF POPE BENEDICT XVI: SPECIAL FOCUS

- 4 Into uncharted waters Robert Mickens
Our Rome correspondent, who watched this week's extraordinary events unfold, judges the measure of a truly historic moment
- 6 In – and out – of office Michael Walsh
Pontiffs down the ages have bowed out. What clues might these cases hold for the future of our soon-to-be ex-Pope?

- 7 A radical last act Eamon Duffy
Benedict has shown that he sees the papal role less in quasi-mythical terms than as a ministry that must be carried out well
- 8 Who's in the frame? Elena Curti
The next occupant of the chair of Peter might be a younger man, or one from the developing world. We weigh up the contenders
- 10 Always Christ at the centre Tracey Rowland
Throughout the social and religious upheavals taking place in his career, Benedict has retained a consistent theological perspective
- 10 The Ratzinger reader Alban McCoy
A selection of the best books to give an insight into the man
- 13 Rottweiler to shepherd: the rise of Joseph Ratzinger
The Tablet analysis
- Jewish perspective Edward Kessler
'On a theological level, he contributed no development'
- Anglican perspective John Hall
'Much in his pontificate has been paradoxical'
- Muslim perspective Abdal Hakim Murad
'A surprisingly fruitful period for dialogue and understanding'
- 29 Lent meditation: Death and the raven
Brian Morton
Our series looking at the life and mission of St Columba continues
- 40 THE CHURCH IN THE WORLD
Benedict resigns to make way for a 'stronger' man
- 42 LETTER FROM ROME
- 43 NEWS FROM BRITAIN AND IRELAND
Shocked bishops salute humble Pope
