

Inside

Lou Reed photographed in New York by Chris Buck

Regulars

Bitstream/ Death Row 8

Notes from the underground/
Beans's last requests

Global Ear 14

On a trip to St Petersburg, Jon Tye discovers a raft of Russian unorthodox sounds

Epiphanies 106

Rob Young goes nuts over a dadaistic John
Cage recital

Editor's Idea 4

Letters 6

Charts 52

Out There 91

Directory 96

Plus Label Lore and Savage Pencil

Back Issues 98

Subscribe 100

Reviews

Index 53

Soundcheck 54

Avant Rock 70

Critical Beats 71

Dub 72

Electronica 73

Global 74

HipHop 75

Jazz & Improv 76

Outer Limits 77

Print Run 78

Cross Platform 80

On Location 84

Supersilent 20

Since 1997 the Oslo quartet's intuitive improvisations, by turns fearsomely torrential and icily tranquil, have spearheaded Norway's new music assault. Julian Cowley meets their audio virus Helge Sten (aka Deathprod)

Helmut Lachenmann 24

Ever since his early associations with Luigi Nono and a Baader-Meinhof member, this German composer has remained one of contemporary classical music's most uncompromising outsiders. By Philip Clark

Lou Reed 28

The great naysayer has just delivered his most sprawling work since Metal Machine Music: a sonic drama based on the writings of Edgar Allan Poe. In New York, he reflects on a lifetime of imbalance. By Alan Licht

Alan Silva 36

The Paris based improvising bassist, artist and pedagogue has spent 40 years dispensing solar energy along with Sun Ra, Archie Shepp, Frank Wright and his own massive Celestial Communication Orchestra. By Dan Warburton

Invisible Jukebox 16

Spring Heel Jack

London breakbeat duo turned experimental big bandleaders Ashley Wales and John Coxon try to identify tracks by Matthew Shipp, György Ligeti, Lemon Kittens, Harrison Birtwistle, Jimi Tenor and more. Tested by Mike Barnes

The Primer 44

Mutant Disco

A user's guide to the early 80s avant hustles of New York's Walter Gibbons, Arthur Russell, James White and August Darnell, plus Eurodisco mutations from Hi-Tension and PiL to Pigbag and The Rapture. By Peter Shapiro

Bites

Out Hud 10

Charalambides 12