ADRIAN GOLDSWORTHY

All in Scarlet Uniform

The fourth novel in a brilliant Napoleonic series from acclaimed historian Adrian Goldsworthy.

1809; as the British army gathers strength for the next phase of the campaign against Bonaparte on the Spanish peninsula, Captain Billy Pringle of the 106th Foot has a somewhat more urgent reason to leave Britain, having become embroiled in an ill-advised duel. Along with his friend Lieutenant Williams, Pringle takes on the task of training Spanish troops to stand beside their British allies. But what seems at first like easy duty soon turns into a desperate fight for survival as they find themselves besieged in the fortress of Ciudad Rodrigo.

Adrian Goldsworthy has a doctorate from Oxford University. His books have sold more than a quarter of a million copies and been translated into over a dozen languages. His non-fiction works include The Roman Army at War, Caesar and Antony and Cleopatra. His Napoleonic novels include True Soldier Gentlemen, Beat the Drums Slowly and Send Me Safely Back Again. He has worked as a presenter, consultant and expert for several TV programmes including HBO's Rome series, BBC's drama Hannibal, BBC's Time Commanders, Channel 4's Time Team Big Roman Dig Live, and National Geographic documentaries.
