

CONTENTS

WSC No 315, May 2013

Northampton and Oxford endure the big freeze

SIMON GILL

By the time the second half begins the pitch is a stark white expanse, like the back wall of the Blue Peter studio
Match of the month
Northampton Town v Oxford United
p20

5 Editorial

England fans should rethink their songbook after the latest racism row

6 Sidelines

Fan banners; taxing France; Watford's escape; Appleton picking; below Pars

12 Shot!

Altrincham v Worcester is one of the few survivors of a fiercely cold March day

15 Compromised morals

Paolo di Canio's politics sit uncomfortably with many upon his arrival at Sunderland

16 Poll vaulting

West Ham's lacks of fan consultation is marring their Olympic Stadium move

18 Home from home

Fiorentina and Fleetwood comparisons; the rising importance of ground tours

20 Match of the month

The National Lift Tower isn't Northampton's only attraction struggling to keep people's attention off the snow

Win and lose
p38

24 Focus on...

Wolves visit Moscow in the early days of European club football

26 Forgotten men

The ignored founders of the FA

27 Stuck in the middle

Flag protests disrupt the Irish League

28 Darkened skies

Coventry can't remember how to win

30 Dream catchers

Qatar's power in world football is rising

32 Euro view

Croatia and Serbia; uniting Cyprus

35 Toxic waste

Players becoming pundits must be stopped

36 World view

Klinsmann's US; Wandering in Sydney

38 Missing the point

Sometimes even winning can feel empty

40 Books

Defensive duties; pitch to project manager; bouncing Baggies; Sabella to Sheffield

42 Letters

"Here's a question I'd like to see asked..."

46 Last word

British fans' loyalty to local clubs compared to those abroad should be admired

COLORSPORT