CHRISTMAS JAZZ/BLUES TITLES FROM QUARTET BOOKS

BIRD LIVES! — Ross Russell

The magnificent and harrowing story of a towering talent poorly rewarded by a society that has too long brutalized its Black membership, told by a man who was often (as President of Dial Records) at the centre of the turmoil Charlie Parker created. (Illustrated pb £4.95)

CLOSE ENOUGH FOR JAZZ — Mike Zwerin

The autobiography of 'the best jazz columnist at work today... a keen social observer' (Studs Terkel), the book moved Leonard Feather to remark: 'It makes you wish you were the author's closest friend!' (Illustrated hb £9.95)

MINGUS — Brian Priestley

The definitive critical biography of one of the music's most exciting, controversial figures, with a comprehensive discography and musical examples. (Illustrated hb £13.95)

HOT AIR, COOL MUSIC — Bruce Turner

The autobiography of one of Britain's most respected and best-loved jazz soloists. (Illustrated hb £9.95)

STORMY WEATHER — Linda Dahl

A comprehensive survey of the 'forgotten role' played by women in jazz history. (Illustrated hb £12.50)
