
inside

 your monthly exploration of new music

10 Bites

Barbara Morgenstern Home entertainer Ko Ishikawa Sho time
Thomas Lehn Analogue adherent Charles Curtis Sinewave subversive

18 David Grubbs

Since moving to New York, the former Gastr Del Sol guitarist and composer has sought out softer but no less daring settings for his lyrical experiments in language and tonal levitation. By Christoph Cox

22 Amiri Baraka

The performing poet, publisher and pamphleteer who bridged Beat, black power and free jazz recalls his days of fire with Albert Ayler, Sunny Murray and The New York Art Quartet. By David Keenan

28 Iceland's New Horizons

The ocean-size post-rock of Sigur Rós is detonating a musical volcano in Iceland's frozen wastes. Rob Young travels to Reykjavik to meet the group, plus the Kitchen Motors collective and composer Hilmar Örn Hilmarsson

34 2000 Rewind

Spooling back through the year in music: The Wire's Records Of The Year compiled from the votes of The Wire's crack writing squad. Plus: writers and musicians list their Pros and Cons of 2000

44 Tangents #4: Smiling Faces Sometimes

In our series taking a sidelong glance at music, Peter Shapiro reveals how psychedelic soul artists from The O'Jays to Sly Stone peeled away the Smiley stickers papering over the grim truth of Nixon's America

50 Invisible Jukebox: Mark E Smith

The Fall's gruff guru gets grumpy about records by Charles Bukowski, Eminem, Iggy Pop, Prince Jazzbo, Spiders, DJ Scud and more. Tested by Edwin Pouncey

reviews

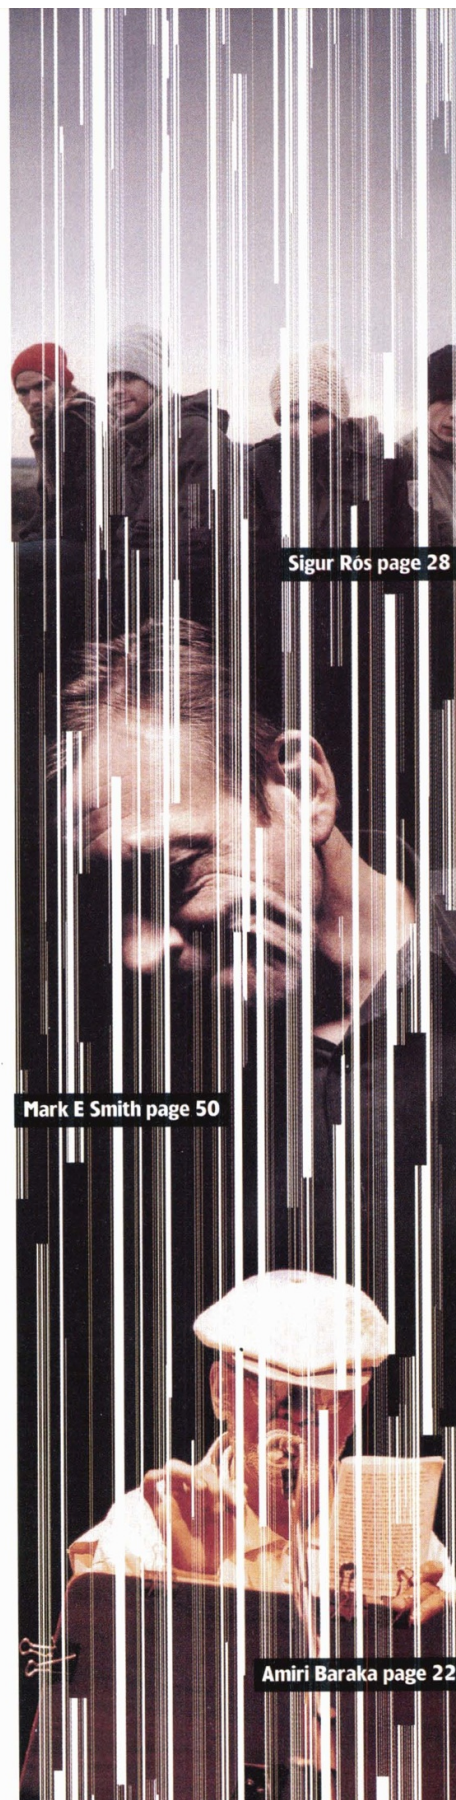

54 Soundcheck January's selected albums and singles, including new releases from Koji Asano, Eugene Chadbourne, Shirley Collins, Charles Curtis, Marcel Duchamp, Ernest Dawkins, Faust, Morton Feldman, Future Pilot AKA, Ryoji Ikeda, Joseph Holbrooke, Christian Marclay & Otomo Yoshihide, Microstoria, Moodymann, The Orb, Pan Sonic, Scannerfunk, Matthew Shipp, Karlheinz Stockhausen, White Out with Jim O'Rourke and more 76 Print Run New music books: The Creation story, The Mothers Of Invention speak out; A new Europsychedelia encyclopedia; Three reggae histories 80 Multimedia Adrian Shaughnessy meets Norway's Kim Hiorthoy, designer of the Rune Grammofon aesthetic 82 On Location Going live: The Acid Mothers set up their Temple in London; Electronica avantists thaw out Finland's Avanto Festival; The Necks slow London to a crawl; Going gaga in Leicester with Henri Chopin, plus Helmut Lachenmann in Huddersfield, Improv mania at Phonomanie, and PJ Harvey in New York

4 Editor's Idea 6 Letters 14 Bitstream News from music's outer limits

16 Global Ear Stewart Lee follows Terrastock to Seattle 75 Charts 78 Label Directory

90 Out There January's selected festivals, happenings, live events, clubs and radio 96 Back Issues

97 Subscribe and get FREE CDs or FREE mags! 98 Epiphanies Jah Wobble's divine revelations

PHOTOS: JOAQUIM MENDES/HAMISH BROWNE/VA VERMANDEL