
inside

your monthly exploration of new music

8 Bites

Photek aquasonic breakbeat science Palace lowdown 'n' dirty Country primitives
Carl Stone rock hard sampladelia

14 Rhys Chatham

This New York composer used to write screaming electric symphonies for 100 guitars. Now he records distorted avant funk for Coldcut's label. By Clive Bell

16 Jaki Liebezeit

The alternative funky drummer, generator of the marathon lock grooves that fired Can's mantra-rock, is back with a new, trance-expanding project: Club Of Chaos. By Rob Young

18 Coldcut and the blunted generation

Meet the stoned scientists of downtempo funk: Coldcut, Funki Porcini, The Herbaliser, Red Snapper, Clatterbox, Dr Rockit, Fila Brazillia, and more. By Peter Shapiro and Rachael Philipps

24 Global Ear: Pakistan

David Toop drifts through the sub-continental sonic debris, and meets the giant of devotional trance music, Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan

28 Ronald Shannon Jackson

From jukejoint-rebellion to future-present freeform psychedelia, Ben Watson gets a history lesson in Great Black Music with The Decoding Society's chief cypher

32 Negativland

High in the ether above Northern California, these plunderphonic pranksters are building a surreal world from the raw material of mainstream radio. By Phil England

34 Hypersymposium

Brian Eno, Peter Gabriel, Scanner, Howie B, DJ Spooky and David Toop attempt to answer the $64,000 question: what will music sound like in the future?

40 Invisible Jukebox: Philip Glass

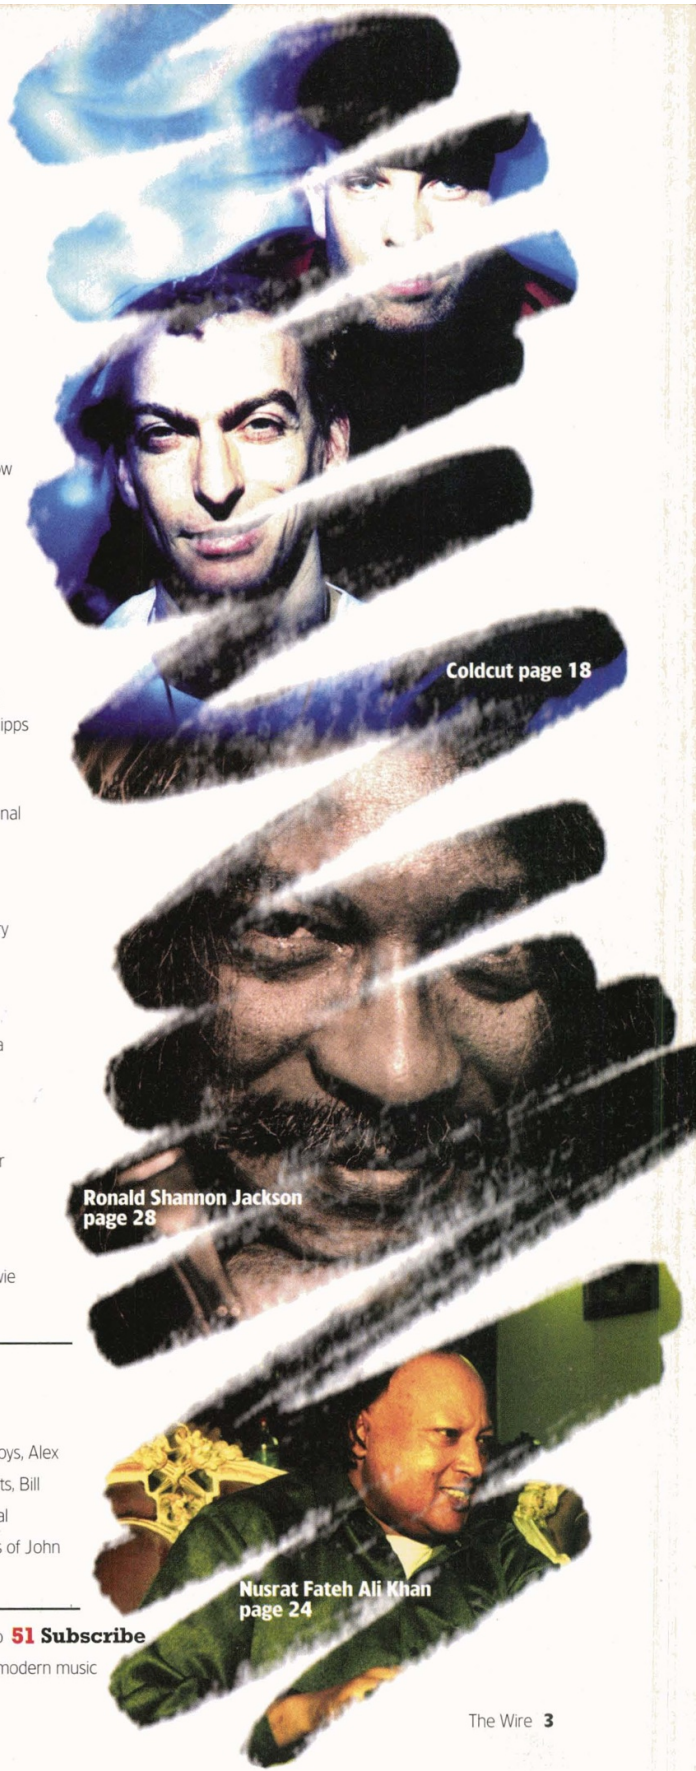

Mike Barnes plays Aphex Twin, Ravi Shankar, Steve Reich, Velvet Underground, David Bowie and more to the minimalist maestro

reviews

45 Soundcheck May's selected albums, including new releases from John Adams, Beastie Boys, Alex Chilton, Cluster, Roger Eno, Flying Lizards, Flynn & Flora, Herbie Hancock, Peter Hammill, Jedi Knights, Bill Laswell, John Lurie, Orbital, Evan Parker, Genesis P-Orridge, Ravi Shankar, Mark Stewart, Transglobal Underground, Tricky, Tom Verlaine and more... 70 Print Run New music books: critical biogs of John Coltrane and Conlon Nancarrow 73 Multimedia Hyper-on CD-ROM experiences

5 Letters 12 Soundings May's selected live events, happenings, club spaces, music on radio 51 Subscribe

44 Charts 72 Back Issues 74 David Toop More nomadic wanderings through modern music

Coldcut page 18

Ronald Shannon Jackson
page 28

Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan
page 24