

Council for British Archaeology

Briefing

Additional events and courses online at www.britisharchaeology.org/briefing

Fieldwork

The cba cannot accept responsibility for operating conditions of projects.

Dig Greater Manchester

Until October 2013

Programme of community excavations at Balderstone Park, Rochdale 3-15.6.13, Manchester 13.7.13 details TBC and Buile Hill Park, Salford 3.9.13-12.10.13. Contact Brian Grimsditch via email B.Grimsditch@salford.ac.uk, tel 0161 295 3821, <http://tinyurl.com/cwoj420>

Alresford, Hampshire

Until September 2013

Training excavation on the Winchester to London Roman Road. All welcome. Under 16s must be accompanied by an adult. Cost £10 for membership to excavate, £70 with training. Accommodation details on request. Contact Richard Whaley, NEHHAS Field Archaeology Branch, tel 01252 548115, www.nehhas.org.uk/errwe.htm

Kent Archaeological Field School

Until November 2013

Variety of archaeological training courses and fieldwork opportunities in Kent. Min age 16. Cost per day from £35 (£25 for members). Contact KAFS, School Farm Oast, Graveney Road, Faversham, Kent, ME13 8UP, email info@kafs.co.uk, tel 01795 532548, www.kafs.co.uk/courses.aspx

Little Marlow, Buckinghamshire

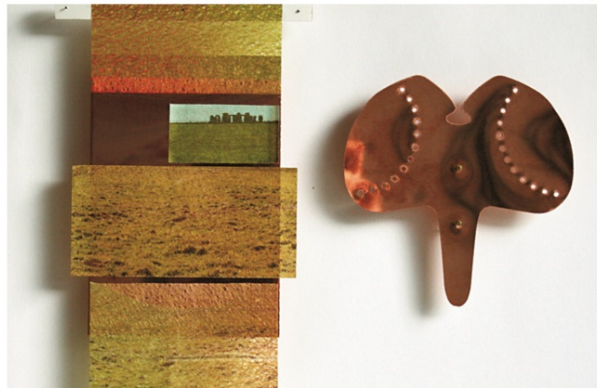

7.4.13-27.10.13

Investigations on a double enclosure earthwork at Little Marlow. Once fortnightly fieldwork on Sunday mornings from 10am. Participation free to Archaeology In Marlow (AIM) members (£2 per day non-members). Over 16s only. Spaces limited, book by contacting John Laker via email johnlaker@thamesinternet.com, tel 01628 481792, www.archaeologyinmarlow.org.uk

Isle of Eday, Orkney

18.5.13-24.8.13

Ongoing excavation on a Neolithic settlement site. Experience preferred but places available for beginners, students welcome. Cost £230 per week,

It would take the best part of this page to list the academics and artists, funding organisations and working partners (which include Denmark's Lejre Archaeological Park and the UK's Crafts Council), behind a project with sub-projects called Creativity in the Bronze Age. So with apologies to most of them, I will draw your attention to an exhibition in the renewed World Archaeology Gallery at the Museum of Archaeology & Anthropology, Cambridge (until Jun 30). "Creativity in the Bronze Age – a reduced rates for additional weeks. Self-catering accommodation incl. food can be provided at a flat rate of £140 per week. Contact BEVARs via email bevars@hotmail.co.uk, www.bevars.org.uk

Bamburgh Castle, Northumberland

3.6.13-29.7.13

Training excavation with opportunities to undertake environmental sampling and work in the media team. Open to all but under 16s must be accompanied by an adult. Campsite accommodation provided in Belford close to local bus routes and amenities. Cost £235 per week. Contact via tel 01556 680478, mob 07765456091, www.bamburghresearchproject.co.uk

Saveock Water, Cornwall

2.6.13-29.8.13

Training excavation on a multi-period site featured in a National Geographic documentary. Full training provided in survey, recording and excavation. All welcome. List of local accommodation response" features seven artists working in basketry, multimedia, ceramics and jewellery. They are reacting to their experiences of visiting excavations in Hungary, handling artefacts in Denmark and joining archaeologists to see ancient sites in Britain. They include Susan Kinley, whose Hanging Windows Sequence (left) and Razor/Mirror (right) are seen above, and Julian Stair (see also page 61). The show later moves to The Wiltshire Museum, Devizes (Jul 6–Sep 1) available. Free internet. Cost £200 per week (£225 with lunch). Contact Jacqui Wood, jacqui@archaeologyonline.org, tel 01872 560351. Pay online via Paypal. www.archaeologyonline.org

Bere Regis, Dorset

3-28.6.13

University of Bournemouth training excavation including site drawing, finds processing/recording, environmental sampling, topographical and geophysical survey. Transport from University campus provided daily. Contact via tel 01202 961916, email askBUenquiries@bournemouth.ac.uk, <http://tinyurl.com/btle72r>

Archaeology Live! York

24.6.13-13.9.13

Hosted by DigHungate on a new site to try and answer questions about the Viking period, Carmelite Friary and Post-Medieval buildings. Cost £225 per week or £65 for taster days. Contact Training Dig, York Archaeological

Trust, mob 07908 210026, email trainingdig@yorkat.co.uk, www.dighungate.com

Lewes, East Sussex

1.7.13-10.8.13

Excavation on a new site in the area surrounding Barcombe Roman villa. Camping available on site for £50 per week or £20 per weekend (Fri-Sun) with cooking facilities, toilets and showers. Contact via email info@culverproject.co.uk, The Culver Archaeological Project, Culver Farm, Church Road, Barcombe, East Sussex, BN8 5TR. www.culverproject.co.uk

Newbarns, Galloway

1.7.13-28.9.13

Annual excavation of prehistoric burial cairns dating from the Neolithic to Iron Age with later settlement in the Anglo-Saxon and medieval periods. Local camping & caravan sites available. Under 16s welcome with an adult, training by arrangement. Apply with CV. Contact Liz Penman via email lizzie@sjcresearch.co.uk, tel 01556 680478. www.sat.org.uk

Silchester Roman Town

1.7.13-11.8.13

Excavation on the Iron Age and Roman Town of Silchester, 10 miles south-west of Reading, investigating Iron Age origins. Cost £275 per 6-day week incl. campsite accommodation (bring your own tent), food, training and supervision. Contact Amanda Clarke via email a.s.clarke@reading.ac.uk, University of Reading, RG6 6AB. www.reading.ac.uk/silchester

Leiston Abbey, Suffolk

2.7.13-21.7.13

DigVentures are conducting a full programme of fieldwork at the striking medieval ruins of Leiston Abbey. Learn and dig alongside the experts on a nearly untouched site. Perfect for beginners as well as more experienced diggers. Various rates available. Contact info@digventures.com, tel 0208 333 5770. <http://digventures.com>

Isfield, East Sussex

8.7.13-2.8.13

Training excavation on a Late Iron