LILIAN HARRY

Surprises in Burracombe

Life is never dull in the beautiful Devonshire village of Burracombe . . .

Hilary Napier is ecstatic to be engaged. But with obstacles springing up from all angles, there may be more than the dress and the venue to arrange before she can consider walking down the aisle.

Frances and James are doing their best to ignore their feelings for each other. Can Frances find a way to let herself love again?

Another Burracombe heartwarmer: the tempting 1950s village setting, the immaculate period detail and local colour, plus authentic characters that feel like true friends.

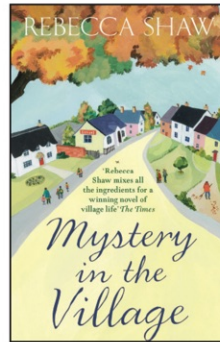

Lilian Harry is a Top 20 bestseller with over one million copies in print.

REBECCA SHAW

Mystery in the Village

Written with warmth and humour, this is classic Rebecca Shaw – a tale of hope, crisis and life-changing consequences.

Peter and Caroline Harris live a comfortable life at the rectory, but their cosy world is shaken up when Caroline's old flame Morgan Jefferson appears.

Newlyweds Chris and Deborah Templeton seem to be the perfect union. But where does Deborah disappear to for days on end? Why won't she tell her husband?

After the tragic death of his young grandson, Ron Bissett is further devastated when he loses his wife. When an unexpected letter is received, it soon becomes clear that Sheila was hiding far darker secrets than anyone ever knew.

'Rebecca Shaw mixes all the ingredients for a winning novel of village life' The Times

Rebecca Shaw is a former school teacher and the bestselling author of many novels about rural life. She has four children and eight grandchildren.
