Pete Townshend CLASSIC QUADROPHENIA

A British guitar legend, co-founder of seminal rock band The Who, creator of the "Rock Opera" and one of the greatest unsung composers of the 20th century, PETE TOWNSHEND introduces CLASSIC QUADROPHENIA, an orchestral presentation of The Who's 1973 masterwork. The recording features Pete along with British tenor Alfie Boe, the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra & Oriana Choir, conducted by Robert Ziegler and orchestrated by Rachel Fuller.
Available on CD, limited-edition double vinyl and CD/DVD Deluxe edition. 029847945294

Wolfgang Rihm ET LUX

Huelgas Ensemble, Minquet Quartet / Paul Van Nevel, conductor
"This hour-long requiem for eight singers (the Huelgas Ensemble) and four string players (the Minquet Quartet) is unlike any requiem you'll hear... The instrumental writing is astonishingly intricate, yet it's the sum effect of the whole piece - nailing the terror and uncertainty of faith - that both unsettles and thrills."
