

10 Roxanna Panufnik, composer of The Tablet's anniversary motet

30 Recusant and taxidermist Charles Waterton

48 New recruits to the Swiss Guard prepare for their swearing-in ceremony

COLUMNS

Clifford Longley
‘Protestant destiny and working-class solidarity no longer cement the Union’ / 5

REGULARS

- Great Catholics 37
- Puzzles 37
- Notebook 38
- Letters 39
- The Living Spirit 40

BOOKS / PAGE 41

Siobhán Garrigan
The Francis miracle: inside the transformation of the Pope and the Church
JOHN L. ALLEN, JR

Sarah Hayes
Leonora
ELENA PONIATOWSKA

ARTS / PAGE 44

Art
Venice Biennale
LAURA GASCOIGNE

Theatre
The Audience;
Gypsy
MARK LAWSON

Cinema
Clouds of Sils Maria
FRANCINE STOCK

CONTENTS

16 MAY 2015 // VOL 269 NO. 9100

FEATURES

4 / Man with a mandate – but not a free hand

With a small Commons majority, the newly re-elected Prime Minister faces a challenging term ahead
BY JULIA LANGDON

The Tablet first appeared on 16 May 1840, and has been in continuous publication ever since. This edition marks that anniversary

6 / Where character counts

Our survey of religious leaders reveals how the public perceives them / BY LINDA WOODHEAD

7 / Bestriding the world

Why the Pope has emerged as a global celebrity for the twenty-first century
BY CATHERINE PEPINSTER

47 / Ladies in White leader casts doubt on Castro's sincerity

48 / The Church in the World
‘Francis effect’ boosts aid charity

51 / News from Britain and Ireland
Scottish faithful desert Labour

10 / Classically modern

Composer Roxanna Panufnik talks to The Tablet
BY BRENDAN MCCARTHY

12 / ‘This is the time of mercy’

The Archbishop of Vienna introduces the Jubilee Year of Mercy
BY CHRISTOPH SCHÖNBORN

15 / The top 100

The Tablet's rankings of Catholics in public life in 2015

Catholicism's tribes

26 / 1: Into outstretched arms

The first of three articles on Catholics in Britain looks at migrants / BY PETER STANFORD

22 / 2: Joined-up thinking

Britain's converts and their journeys to the Church
BY ROBIN BAIRD-SMITH

30 / 3: Through thick and thin

The families who refused to give up their faith during the Reformation
BY EDWARD STOURTON

32 / Conscience that would not be silenced

How one priest spoke out against the Nazis, with The Tablet as his inspiration
BY CHRISTA PONGRATZ-LIPPITT

34 / Our man in Mexico

Graham Greene used The Tablet as a forum for his works in progress
BY IAN THOMSON

34 / A village ‘saint’

An extract from a travel memoir, first published in this journal
BY GRAHAM GREENE

36 / Furrows for the seeds of truth

The dilemmas of Catholic journalism: truth or loyalty?
BY DANIEL O'LEARY

COVER ILLUSTRATION: JAVIER RODRIGUEZ