British Journal of Healthcare Assistants
For HCAs and assistant practitioners

CLINICAL

3.8 Maintaining personal hygiene: Care of the hair
Menna Lloyd Jones 580

Eye care and the HCA/AP
Ian Peate and Michael Gill 586

Best practice: wound exudate and the role of dressings
Menna Lloyd Jones 590

Men’s health (5): Health as a lifestyle issue
Chris Barber 602

PROFESSIONAL

Moving on up: the HCA workforce development escalator at Kingston University, London
Francha Hyatt and Terry Firth 583

Should assistant practitioners be allowed to administer medicine?
Caroline O’Flanagan 594

IPE: interprofessional education for HCAs
Catherine Hayes 606

People living with dementia: how dementia affects the ability to communicate
Linda Nazario 614

HEALTH MATTERS

Editorial: Beating the bounds
Peter Bradley 577

Helping our patients to ‘be prepared’
Tanis Hard 578

Compassion is a ten-letter word
Tracie Culpitt and Stephan Spencer-Adams 579

Care Quality Commission speaks out on safety in health and social care
Ian Peate 612

Kent fire crews give support to those living with dementia
Jo Harfleet 622

586 Eye care and the HCA/AP
594 Should APs administer medication?
622 Kent fire crew with dementia group