EDITORIAL
Delivering midwifery care in difficult to access areas
Sophie Gardner 156

BIRTHWRITE
Freedom to speak—easier said than done
Karen Barker 158

COMMENT
The future of supervision
Louise Silvarton 160

The new Code and what it means for midwives
Aysha Mendes 162

Empowering families to make informed choices about sleep safety
Professor Helen L. Ball 164

CLINICAL PRACTICE
Infant massage: The practice and evidence-base to support it
Alison Cooke 166

Constipation and haemorrhoids: A midwifery perspective for the childbearing continuum
Kathryn Lamb and Ruth Sanders 171

RESEARCH
Antenatal alcohol exposure: An East Anglian study of midwives’ knowledge and practice
Anne Marie Winstone and Christopher Verity 180

Italian fathers’ experiences of labour pain
Elena Tarlazzi, Paolo Chiari, Enrico Naldi, Dila Parma and Susan M Jack 188

SOCIAL MEDIA
LinkedIn: Facebook for professionals?
Alison Power 196

Sleep safety 164

RESEARCH
Midwives’ perception about their practice in a midwifery-led care model in Karachi, Pakistan
Zulekha Saleem, Rafat Jan, Helen McIntrye, Salma Amin Rattani and Rozna Sikandar 200

SUPERVISION
Drug administration in midwifery: Confusion, illegal practice and the supervisor of midwives
Shelley Bennett 208

PROFESSIONAL
Priority issues from 0–19
Caroline Voogd, Madeleine Murphy and Sophie Gardner 216

INTERNATIONAL
Research roundup—March 2015
Yana Richens 219

LEGAL
Landmark FGM case: Doctors found not guilty
Andrew Symon 220

CLASSIFIED
222

MIDWIFE BLOG
Concrete midwifery
Paulina Sporek 227