The Oded Halahmy Foundation for the Arts, Inc. is a non-profit cultural organization which supports original artistic expressions of peace and hope in the Middle East, the United States and around the world. The Foundation's projects include supporting prominent writers from the Middle East, many of whom have never had the opportunity to appear in print in English for the reading public. The Foundation also supports innovative artistic expressions of peace in drama, music, and in visual art, encouraging all forms of art as a mean of fostering the peace dialogue.
