

contents

No 224 October 2005

TONY DAVIS

Chelsea 4
West Brom 0
“This is a club, a place and a brand name that carries serious
economic weight
for ten million
class-conscious Londoners”
p26

4 Editorial

We can't wait for the World Cup

6 Diary

Chelsea win their tug of love over Essien; Gordon Strachan is all but lost for words; England embarrassed; the big kick-off

10 Shot!

Five promoted clubs take their first steps

12 Sidelines

Television horrors in Scotland and England; the fans take charge at Stockport, Brentford and Rushden

16 Plastic Fantastic

Artificial turf is back and better than ever

18 Thun Up

The Swiss side who have come from nowhere to face Arsenal; plus rare Welsh success for Rhyl and Carmarthen

20 Owen and Nakata

Just how good are the big-name arrivals at Newcastle and Bolton?

22 Going Nowhere In Italy

Torino and Genoa fall foul of the authorities

24 Shot! Archive

George Eastham, his wife and the League Cup get cosy in 1972

26 Match Of The Month

Chelsea struggle to find people with more money than sense as they play West Brom

30 Lord Burns Of Soho Square

Will anyone listen to the independent review of the FA's structure?

32 Strange Case Of...

Cedric Anselin, who has travelled from Zidane's Bordeaux to King's Lynn via Norwich and a bout of malaria

34 Lights, Camera, Bad Actors

Make it your "Goal!" to miss this film

38 Book Reviews

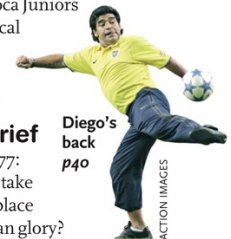

Crazy days at Wimbledon; casual looks at Liverpool; Bobby Robson tries to recall his career; a day in the life of football 40 Letter From...

Argentina, where Boca Juniors have become a political football and their most famous ex-player has a new job

46 A Season In Brief

Division Two, 1976-77: will Bolton or Forest take that last promotion place and go on to European glory?

Diego's back p40

ACTION IMAGES

Regulars 29 WSC Subs & T-shirts 37 On the Web 41 WSC Books 42 Letters 45 Classifieds