

managers 18

london 30

diary 6

best & worst 2000 review 24

contents JANUARY 2001 ISSUE NO 167

- 4 Editorial Fun and laughter in the Premiership
- 6 Diary Leeds dispose of Barcelona; Young England lose in Italy; Di Canio makes himself popular; all sorts at Canvey Island
- 10 The Bigger Picture Looking back to the the last period in which Hibs pressed Celtic at the top of the Scottish league
- 12 Sidelines Where it all began for Sven-Goran; Chesterfield in danger of disappearing; net gains for NTL; making a stand at Villa
- 16 Tony Cascarino A widely praised new autobiography
- 18 Famous Managers To counter the view that former international players make the best bosses, we trace the club management careers of three well-known names
- 24 Review of 2000 WSC contributors offer opinions on the highlights and low points of the past year in football
- 28 Make Millions Today Just follow our simple guidelines
- 30 London Why the capital's clubs, with one exception, have failed to mount a consistent challenge for the League title; the floating fan base that may have hampered the progress of the three west London clubs; the progressively widening gap between the city's eastern neighbours
- 36 Back in the ex-USSR Will the 2002 World Cup finals be the first to include qualifiers from the former Soviet republics other than Russia?
- 46 Football Myths Several good reasons for hitting it long regulars wsc books, t-shirts & subscriptions 40 football on the web 42 letters 45 classifieds

MARK LEECH (6) / COLORSPORT/EMPICS