

football myths 46

diary 8

oceania 30

wsc interview david sheepshanks 24

contents

JUNE 2001 ISSUE NO 172

- 4 Editorial The advantages of doing without sponsorship
- 8 Diary Gérard suspects an Ipswich plot; Man Utd wrap up another title; Leicester just keep losing; Alan Smith leaves Palace again
- 12 The Bigger Picture Paying tribute to the late Jim Baxter
- 14 Sidelines QPR down but not out; the man behind Alavés; Marseille's Mr Fixit; a vital win for Forest; anyone for Dennis?
- 18 Chesterfield Why the League's proposed nine-point deduction did not seem like punishment for the erstwhile leaders of the Third Division; other clubs who have been docked points in past seasons
- 20 Fan Safety Why clubs' cost-cutting is increasing the risk of crowd violence; reactions in to the latest stadium disaster, in South Africa
- 22 Scottish League A new report predicts financial meltdown
- 24 Ipswich Town Q&A The chairman of this season's surprise European qualifiers explains how they took on the Premiership
- 29 Fan Types People you don't want to be sitting next to
- 30 World Cup 2002 Australia 31 American Samoa 0 – and other big wins in international football history
- 35 Zine Scene Will football websites kill off the printed fanzine; after a four-year break, a pioneering publication returns
- 38 Football Politics FIFA's marketing arm; how Greece came close to being booted out of the World Cup
- 46 Football Myth The man who saved Leeds?

regulars 37 wsc books 40 football on the web 41 wsc back issues & subs 42 letters 45 classifieds

TONY DAVIS/ALSPORT (6) LEMPICS