Vital Football is an independent football network run by the fans for the fans. We take football seriously but not ourselves...

Vital is enjoying a growing and loyal following with over 1.2million unique visitors a month, offering a fully interactive football community experience for fans of all ages following our ethos to provide a platform for them to express their opinions. Fans can read articles, leave comments, join in the forums as well as having their own say by submitting their own articles or poll suggestions.

The network also provides a portal for campaign groups, pressure groups and other football related worthy causes such as Football Aid, the Football Fans Census, Football Supporters Federation and the Stand Up Sit Down campaign.

So why not visit www.vitalfootball.co.uk, select your team (via the team selector or links in the league tables) and join in!

If it's Football – it's Vital!
