GAVIN G SMITH

The Damned Legion

The Suicide Squad for lovers of Aliens, a thrilling new down-and-dirty military SF series set in a world of mercenary actions and covert operations.

Four hundred years in the future, the most dangerous criminals are kept in suspended animation aboard prison ships and ‘rehabilitated’ in a shared virtual reality environment. But Miska Storrow, a thief and hacker with a background in black ops, has stolen one of these ships, the Hangman’s Daughter, and made of its crew her own indentured army: the Bastard Legion.

Gavin G Smith is the author of Veteran and the Age of Scorpio trilogy, as well as two computer game tie-ins.

STEPHEN BAXTER

The Massacre of Mankind

The 1920s. The aliens have invaded. And this time they’re going to win . . .

The Massacre of Mankind is a sequel to one of the most famous and influential SF books ever – The War of the Worlds, by H.G. Wells. The novel is written by the multi-award-winning co-author of The Long Earth novels with Terry Pratchett, Stephen Baxter.

In this terrifying sequel, set in London, the Martians return, and the war begins again. But the aliens do not repeat the mistakes of their last invasion. They know how they lost last time. The massacre of mankind has begun.

Stephen Baxter is the pre-eminent SF writer of his generation, who wrote The Time Ships, the official sequel to The Time Machine. Published around the world he has won major awards in the UK, US, Germany and Japan.

TOM TONER

The Weight of the World

The sequel to The Promise of the Child, reviewed as the most important debut SF novel in five years.

An extraordinarily inventive and hugely original SF novel that charts a compelling vision of a future and spins a hypnotic narrative around it. A novel that could command the same amount of attention and furore that met the publication of The Quantum Thief. The richness and originality of its vision combined with its playful take on hard science make this a novel with real commercial potential that will be talked about for years and should launch a major career in SF.

Thomas N. Toner studied fine art and painting in Loughborough before moving to Australia to write. He collects giant fossilized shark teeth, and recently returned to London.
