

CURRENT ARCHAEOLOGY 165

Contents

324

Orkney Barrows

Six mounds investigated on Orkney: at Gitterpitten, Gawn Farm and Vestrafiold on Mainland, at Littlequoy on Burray, at Ward Hill on Shapinsay and Setter on Eday

330

John Musty

John Musty lays down his pen and looks back at his career in Archaeological Science

332

Clava

Clava: the light at the end of the tunnel. An experiment at the Clava chambered tomb at the winter solstice 1997 and 1998

336

Diary

Philip Barker as Artist; Richard Morris retires from the CBA; The London Archaeologist relaunches; European Archaeologists meet; Building your own Geophysics; the Millennium Festival Awards for All; Culverwell mesolithic site; and Smalltalk

339

Round-Up

Some of the highlights of 1999: Seahenge; Roman Temple at Wanborough; King Alfred at Winchester; Fort Cumberland; Fishbourne; Ashford; Faversham Oasthouse; Taplow and Avebury

343

Books

The End of Antiquity; The Golden Age of Roman Britain; Hidden Scotland; Land and Archaeology; Later Anglo-Saxon England; Ironbridge; Druids; Cambridge, the Hidden History; The Tomb of Christ, The Atlantic Celts; The Ancient World of the Celts.

346

Staircase House Stockport

346 Introduction

348 The Story of Mr Jones

352 The pictures

354

Sandy

Excavations in the municipal cemetery reveal evidence for the Roman small town

357

Letters

Beavers; Whitby ... and Dracula; Wallsend Fort and a Methodist Chapel; Walking Draglines; Scallop Shell Decoration; Heritage Laws; Amateur Archaeology; Commercial Contractors for Northern England and Phoney Excavators.

Front Cover

Jane Downes and site assistant Dan Hind, happy after completing a series of excavations as part of the Orkney Barrows Project. The site shown is a small chambered tomb on Eday, pictured after reinstatement and a heavy rainstorm.

Photo: Tom Ullathorne

CURRENT ARCHAEOLOGY 165