

Contents

Features

- 217 Creswell Crags
The first Upper Palaeolithic cave art to be discovered in Britain. Plus a note on Aveline's Hole.
- 228 Dolforwyn Castle
The castle of the last Welsh Prince of Wales is now finally excavated, conserved and open to the public.
- 238 The Swan
The excavation of an early 17th century warship that sank during Cromwell's expedition against Scotland.
- 248 Nassington
The excavation of the Prebendal manor, and the preservation of the dovecot and tithe barn.

Regulars

- 212 News
A carved stone on Fylingdales Moor, Yorkshire; Late Bronze Age bronzes and gold objects from a wreck off the Devon coast; A penannular gold ring from Spettisbury, Dorset; Roman wooden coffins from London; A witch bottle from Debenham, Suffolk.
- 235 Diary
Environmental Stewardship Scheme; Domitianus II goes to Oxford; The Rose Theatre; The Sibsey Trader Windmill restored; Smalltalk.
- 244 Books
The Time Team Guide; Boats of the World; Henge Monuments of the British Isles; The Joy of Flint; Archaeological Field Handbook; Trent Valley Landscapes; The Upper Derwent: 10,000 Years in a Peak District Valley; Prehistoric Cheshire; Ancient Northumberland; Dolforwyn Castle & Montgomery Castle; Christian Maclagan: Scotland's Formidable Lady Antiquary.
- 256 Letters
The Big Roman Dig; Alchester; Britain AD; Celtic Heads; The 'New' Archaeology; Costume; Town Planning; and Facial Injuries.
- 259 And finally...
What is public archaeology? How to help your museum.

