

CONTENTS

(Vol XXI, No. 5) | August 2010

ON THE COVER The Sea Stallion, a reconstructed Viking ship, sets sail from Roskilde on its way to Dublin.

UP FRONT

Letters

Your comments, complaints and compliments.

4

News

Gladiator cemetery; Dartford Neanderthals; Grimes Graves Goddess returns; Dorchester's new Roman sites; Chiswick House gardens; new Museum of London galleries open; Colchester's UNESCO bid; East Oxford's past.

6

CALENDAR

Archaeology dates for your diary.

11

FEATURES

RAIDERS AND TRADERS

New research on the Vikings

Recent discoveries are causing a re-think of the Vikings and their place in our history.

12

WHITHORN PRIORY

Burials at the tomb of St Ninian

Historic excavations at Scotland's Cradle of Christianity have finally been published.

22

EXCAVATING ALL SAINT'S

A Medieval church rediscovered

Excavations have revealed the location of a 'lost' church as well as mysterious mass graves.

30

THE ROMAN ARMY IN THE PENNINES

Re-routing a lost Roman Road

Amateur archaeologists have found evidence that re-draws the route of Margary 712.

38

REGULARS

46

Reviews

42

AD 410: the Year that Shook Rome; Excavations at Bowes and Lees Rigg; Visiting the Past: a guide to finding and understanding Britain's past; Kentish sites and sites of Kent: a miscellany of four archaeological sites.

Interview

46

Conservator Dana Goodburn-Brown explains her revolutionary approach to archaeology conservation, deep in the heart of a suburban shopping centre.

Sherds

48

Chris Catling's irreverent take on heritage issues.

Odd Socs

50

Save our Parsonages and the Rectory Society.