The White City

Award-winning author Simon Morden's stunning quest continues, unravelling magic and uncovering secrets on the way . . .

Mary and Dalip have fought monsters and won. Now they hold the greatest of treasures: maps that reveal the way to the White City, where they can learn the secrets of Down. But to get there they must rely on Crows, who has already betrayed them. As they battle their way towards the one place in all of Down without magic, they must ask themselves how far they will go to find their way home. After all, if there's one thing the White City offers those brave enough to enter, it's more than they bargained for.

Simon Morden has won the Philip K. Dick Award, and is a popular figure on the genre scene, writing both noir SF and extravagant fantasy-themed SF.
