

CONTENTS

'The danger is that the global problems seem so big that charity doesn't just begin at home, it ends at home' DAVID MILIBAND p42

42

MAY/JUNE 2017

THE AGENDA

- 12 EDITOR'S LETTER
- 14 FROM THE FOUNDER
- 16 THE SPEAR'S LEADERS
Brexit blast-off | Miliband's challenge | In Liz we don't Truss
- 20 READERS' LETTERS
- 22 DIARY
John Walsh reports from the Hyderabad Concours d'Elegance
- 24 THE HEDGEHOG
Our spiky columnist investigates the HNW world. Edited by Christopher Silvester
- 26 THE GIVER & THE GIFT
With a generous donor and Natalia Vodianova of the Naked Heart Foundation

- 28 SHOT BEFORE DAWN
Spear's goes out and about town
- 30 COSMOS
News, events and trends from around the HNW world
- 32 LIQUID LUNCH
With the journalist and City historian Iain Martin. Interview by Sophie McIntyre
- 35 ROBERT AMSTERDAM
How cyber war is changing the security landscape for all, including HNWs
- 36 SAM LEITH
Why freezing your assets is an increasingly attractive option
- 37 CERIS GARDNER
New probate fees are a stealth tax that need to be reconsidered
- 38 GUY MONSON
The search for growth and optimism in the populist world

THE ISSUES

- 42 TIME FOR THE RICH TO STEP UP AND STEP IN
Globalisation has left us unstable, unequal and insecure, David Miliband tells Alec Marsh
- 48 IN THE NAME OF THE PEOPLE
A Prince's Trust-style charity is giving ailing Greece a lift by supporting its entrepreneurs. By Christopher Silvester
- 54 THE LONG HAUL TO A FAST BUCK
Garth Herincx meets Alex Prindiville, who's made a career of fulfilling petrolheads' dreams
- 58 WHO'S THE SMARTEST OF THEM ALL?
TAG Heuer's smartwatch isn't competing with Apple's, the brand's boss tells John Arlidge

48

26

58