

Joe Hill Horns

A chilling new tale from one of the modern masters of horror

Joe Hill burst onto the scene with the World Fantasy Award-winning collection 20th Century Ghosts, and followed that up with the best-selling, award-winning and critically acclaimed supernatural chiller Heart-Shaped Box. Now comes Horns, another stunning foray into the dark side of human nature.

Joe Hill's short fiction has appeared in literary, mystery and horror collections and magazines in Britain and America. He lives in the USA.

www.joehillfiction.com

Horror Cased/Trade Paperback (export only) February
£14.99/£12.99 388pp 234 x 153mm
978 0 575 07916 8/978 0 575 07917 5
Markets: World XUSAC
USA, Translation & Serial: Mickey Choate Agency

John Meaney Absorption

Ragnarok – Volume One

The universe is dark. And it is alive

People across the universe are glimpsing shards of darkness moving at the edge of their vision; hearing echoes of a dark, disturbing musical chord; and dreaming of becoming crystal, and joining the Ragnarok Council.

Absorption is the first of a new space opera trilogy packed with space warfare and mindblowing rationale for Norse mythology. This is SF to rival Peter F. Hamilton.

John Meaney has been called 'The first important new SF writer of the 21st century'. He has been twice shortlisted for the BSFA Award for best novel. He lives in Tunbridge Wells, Kent. www.johnmeaney.com

Science Fiction Cased/Trade Paperback February
£18.99/£12.99 464pp 234 x 153mm
978 0 575 08533 6/978 0 575 08532 9
Markets: World XUSAC
USA: Zeno Literary Agency
Translation & Serial: Orion