

Rationalist Press Association

The Rationalist Press Association Limited is a publishing organization which, since it was founded in 1899, has distributed millions of books and periodicals throughout the world. It is a company limited by guarantee and not having a share capital. It is currently in dispute with the Department of Education and Science over its registration in Britain as an educational charity.

AIMS

To promote the study of rational thinking
To encourage the spread of rational thinking in human conduct
To fight irrationality and superstition wherever they affect human welfare
To defend freedom of thought and enquiry, particularly where a rational approach to human affairs may conflict with traditional creeds and beliefs
To advance a secular system of education, the main object of which shall be to cultivate in the young moral and intellectual fitness for social life

HOW TO JOIN

If you are in agreement with these aims and wish to become a member of the RPA please fill in the application form below. The minimum annual subscription of £2 entitles you to receive Humanist each month, Question 6, to be published in January 1973, and the proceedings of the 1971 Annual Conference, Rationalism: An Answer to the Problems of the 1970s. New members will also receive a complimentary copy of Question 5 (January 1972).

A wide range of books is published by the RPA's subsidiary, Pemberton Publishing Company — the latest catalogue will be sent on request.
