

Contents

VOL 53 NO 9 MARCH 2019

40

COVER
Rosie Sander Iris sibirica, 2011, watercolour, on sale at this month's BADA Fair from Jonathan Cooper, priced £16,000

FOLLOW US
@AntiqueMag

24

48

REGULARS

- 3 Editor's Hello: Georgina Wroe introduces this month's issue, including previews of the BADA and TEFAF Maastricht fairs
- 6 Antique News: A round up of this month's movers and shakers, including the opening of a new auction house and three must-see exhibitions
- 12 Around the Houses: Your best barometer to today's market. Find out what is selling and for how much, including a Native American rattle and delftware drinking vessel

- 24 Saleroom Spotlight: A look at the collection of one of the country's best-known dealers in early oak, which is going under the hammer this month
- 30 Cool and Collectable: 30 years on from the fall of the Berlin Wall, Paul Fraser considers memorabilia from the momentous event
- 39 An Auctioneer's Lot: Charles Hanson puts a sought-after Tudor watch in the spotlight

- 52 Fair Play: Meet the dealers at this month's events as we go behind the scenes on the national and international scene

- 56 Top of the Lots: A preview of some of the quirkier and best pieces coming up for sale in upcoming weeks

- 58 Book Offers: Possibly our best sale yet. Discover the money you can save on a range of design titles from ACC Art Books

60 Fairs Calendar: Stay up to date with our listings of the best events around the country and beyond this month

62 Auction Calendar: Never miss another sale with our extensive calendar of events taking place in March

66 Last Word: A sideways look at the world of antiques from Duncan Phillips, including details of a Welsh artist

FEATURES

20 Clear Cut Winners: Ever wondered how valuers put a price on antique diamonds? Richard Ogden provides some insider tips

26 Print Works: Discover the stunning textiles made by unemployed women working on a project in Milwaukee in the 1930s, on show this month

32 Trowel Play: Always thought buying antiquities was the preserve of museums and the super rich? Start a collection today for £100

36 Softness for Water: On the eve of a new exhibition, Anthony J. Lester considers the history of the Royal Institute of Painters in Water Colours

40 In the Frame: May Geolot reflects on the beauty of antique mirrors and their illustrious makers

45 Chapter and Verse: Antique furniture dealer David Harvey presents a potted history of that most English of rooms – the library

48 Arts School: Researching the makers of arts and crafts gems can be an utter pleasure, specialist Anthony Bernbaum reveals the tools you need