The Hours of Henry VIII

The
Morgan
Library &
Museum

Discover this marvelous codex named after Henry VIII, the most passionate and controversial king in England's history.
Beautifully bound in red velvet, it contains his famous motto Honi Soit Qui Mal Y Pense (Shame on him who evil thinks) engraved on the silver clasps. Be inspired by the stunning beauty of its miniatures, painted by the master colorist and genius of composition Jean Poyer.

The replica is visually indistinguishable from the original manuscript, from its vegetable parchment paper with the same texture, thickness, feel and even smell as the original, to the sewing pattern and the paint used for the illuminations.”
