

Geographical COMPETITION

Identify this country using the following clues:

Almost 60 per cent of its area is forested

Indigenous people constitute 45 per cent of the population

It has suffered three earthquakes of magnitude 7.5 or higher since 2000

It's the world's largest producer of silver

It's the location of the biggest city in the world that can't be reached by road

COMPETITION DETAILS

The first five correct entries drawn at random win a Bradt travel guide of their choice. To enter, simply visit www.geographical.co.uk/competitions. Entries close 31 January. For a full list of in-depth guides to unusual destinations, visit www.bradtguides.com

NOVEMBER'S ANSWER
Mali (Dogon Country)

