

Contents

The world's top 50 thinkers

Prospect salutes the writers, scientists, philosophers and other great minds reshaping our times

p22

The future of conservatism 34 Regime change in Downing Street must be a prompt for a serious overhaul TIM MONTGOMERIE	Letters 8
The Blair doctrine 40 When is it right to go to war? Tony Blair is having second thoughts STEVE BLOOMFIELD	Opinions
Rule of Law 46 How Donald Trump has torn at the soft tissue of American democracy DAHLIA LITHWICK	The new PM will depend on Whitehall for survival 10 SUE CAMERON
The Huawei story 52 Hostages, espionage and a global trade war—how a Chinese telecoms company conquered the world ISABEL HILTON	Detective novels on holiday 11 CAROLINE CRAMPTON
Are you sitting comfortably? 58 From Alice to Little Red Riding Hood: how our favourite characters from children's fiction burst into life ALBERTO MANGUEL	Austerity is ending without argument 12 TOM CLARK
The battle over bread 62 The humble loaf has become a fashionable badge of identity. But do we really know our sliced white from our sourdough? DAN HANCOX	STEPHEN COLLINS's cartoon strip 13
Rise and fall of the high-density madmen 68 Post-war architecture wasn't all concrete and cars—some wanted to create urban living spaces on a human scale WILL SELF	Justice behind a blindfold 14 DAVID ALLEN GREEN
Prospect Portrait Edmund de Waal 74 The ceramicist and author talks about rootlessness, refugees and how art can change the world ANDREW DICKSON	View from Hong Kong "They have betrayed us" 16 TIMOTHY MCLAUGHLIN
The nature cure 80 The rise of "wilderness therapy"—and what it means for mental health CAL FLYN	Speed data 19 An American tragedy ANNE CASE & ANGUS DEATON
	The Duel 20 Are our human rights laws working? HELENA KENNEDY VS JONATHAN SUMPTION ▶

Coming up this month: Jennie Bristow on why the inter-generational war is a myth, Nathan Filer on the complex business of mental health diagnoses and Marion Nestle on how big sugar manipulates the law—and our diets. Visit prospectmagazine.co.uk or wherever you get your podcasts