

CONTENTS

When
Saturday
Comes
No 392
November 2019

COLIN MCPHERSON / WSC PHOTOS

REGULARS

- 5 Editorial
Amid Bury's demise, financial squabbles and some clubs wanting out altogether, the new EFL chairman faces a tricky assignment
- 6 Sidelines
Women's Super League pulls in the crowds; anthem awkwardness; UEFA's gamble on new competition; the club Matt Busby built; why nostalgia is back in fashion
- 12 Shot!
Local pride at stake in the FA Cup first qualifying round as Folkestone Invicta head round the coast to Whitstable Town
- 24 Focus on
Benito Carbone, the flamboyant Italian who delighted Hillsborough and Valley Parade with his eye for the spectacular

Under-coached and under-resourced, promising kids float away from the game, bitter and negative

Grassroots p34

- 37 World view
Gerard Piqué playing a blinder in Andorra; kick-off for the Canadian Premier League; Warsaw's alternative club pick up interest
- 40 Books
Half a century of Shoot magazine; Bromley's march to the arch; boardroom benefactors at Rochdale; Matt Jansen's truncated career
- 42 Letters
Does a thriller writer reveal the killer's name in a preface to his novel? Of course not...
- 46 Season in brief
Everton draw big crowds in the second tier but Leicester hang on to the title

FEATURES

- 14 Calling it out
New book traces the changing face of ultra groups; ridding Italy's stadiums of racism must begin with wider society; reporting of hate crimes is a step in the right direction; Paddy Power aspire to the moral high ground
- 19 Chest height
Stars on badges are used to denote a notable achievement – only no one's quite sure what
- 20 Team spirit: Grimsby Town
Blundell Park's severed floodlights will never cast quite the same glow; how exiled Mariners are catching their news on the net

The cold, dark Saturdays of winter lie ahead, but this is officially the last weekend of summer, and it's going out with a heatwave. It's a time to be hopeful

Bradford City v Carlisle United p30

- 26 Non-League: Worcestershire
Worcester City facing an uncertain future as the money starts to run dry; Bromsgrove Sporting fill a gap for the community
- 28 Object lessons
The 12-inch record that transported the sounds of Anfield to a distant household
- 30 Match of the month
Bradford welcome Carlisle to West Yorkshire, hopeful that the backing of thousands will give them the edge in League Two
- 34 Back to basics
Junior teams encounter obstacles long before they get near a pitch; the grassroots game is relying on those doing it for love not money