CONTENTS

FRONTLINES
NEWS Letters and market news 21
IN MEMORIAM Edmund De Linger, Murad Michael Megalli and Georges D Bomet 23
WORKSHOP Istanbul’s luxury new brand Armagana Nigarat 26
PROFILE Internationally renowned Japanese textile artist Jun Tomita 29
ICOC PROFILE Dealer Fair preview for the ICOC XII in Stockholm in June 2011 45

FEATURES
A FASCINATING PARADOX 70
A South Transcaucasian Pile Carpet
WALTER B DENNY
The design of a Caucasian carpet from the Wolf Collection is traced to the region’s silk embroideries

WOVEN PAINTINGS 72
Goya’s Tapestries
ANTONIO SAMA GARCIA
The cartoons of Francisco de Goya for the Spanish Royal Tapestry Factory are widely regarded as great works of art but that high opinion is not always extended to the woven hangings based on his work

CABINET OF CURIOSITIES 76
The Rautenstrauch-Joest Museum, Cologne
JONATHAN HOPE
The Cologne museum has moved to an ultra-modern setting on the city’s Cäcilienstrasse, with ample gallery display space allowing the ethnographic artefacts to be placed in contextualised settings

ASHTAPADA 80
MICHAEL FRANCES
The oldest securely dated complete silk pile carpet from the Muslim world, in Doha’s Museum of Islamic Art, casts light on trade and cultural connections across Asia and the Mediterranean world

RUGS & KILIMS IN THE ANKARA VAJKIFAR 90
BEN EVANS & SUZAN BAYRAKTAROGLU
The Vakiflar’s Ankara headquarters house a little known collection of Turkish carpets and flatweaves.
The first of a series of articles on the Vakiflar’s regional rug holdings by HALI’s Editor

ASPECTS OF NOBILITY 98
Colonial Andean Unicoa and their Inca Models
ELENA RHIPS
Colonial period Andean tunics represent a powerful symbolic legacy of the prior Inca noble tradition

A THREAD OF HISTORY 112
ROSEMARY CRILL
Fine examples of India’s craft tradition, seven kantha embroideries from Bengal have been donated to London’s Victoria & Albert Museum by collector Karun Thakar

CONTEXT
EXHIBITIONS ‘A Story of Islamic Embroidery in Nomadic and Urban Traditions’ at Abu Dhabi’s Emirates Palace Hotel; Robert and Lois Baylis’ Tibetan rugs at the Rubin Museum, New York; ‘Splendour of Colour, Shimmer of Silk’ at Jerusalem’s L.A. Mayer Museum of Islamic Art; the Fukuda Art Museum plays host to tatsuqski textiles; Zadah’s ‘Eastern Gems’ hit London; BRAFA and more in Brussels in January 2011; Domotex 2011; San Francisco’s Tribal and Textile Art Fair 127
CALENDAR Auctions, exhibitions, fairs and conferences worldwide 150
AUCTION PRICE GUIDE Recent sales in Europe and the USA 155
BOOKS Max Kimburg and Christian Eber reflect on the TM’s Colors of the Oasia. Central Asian Arts, a record of the Musaad Megalli Collection; Lucien de Guise, head curator of the Islamic Arts Museum Malaysia assesses the V&A’s Imperial Chinese Robes From The Forbidden City; Stefano Ionescu’s Handbook of Fakes by Tuduc reviewed by John Mills 166
MARKET REPORT New York antique rug dealer Jason Nazmyial tackles the web 173
PARTING SHOTS From Hanover, to Brussels and San Francisco 182
FIRST VIEW The ‘Mantle of Atahualpa’—an early 16th century Inca axsu 184

Printed from HALI - Issue 167 at exacteditions.com. Copyright © 2021