

How dare I dare to dream	p. 437
Holy King David	p. 72
Holy Starvation	p. 58
I am sick of a kingdom which is a jewelled prison	p. 439
I choose no tail or toy!	p. 302
I had not thought to hear	p. 400
I love hate	p. 430
I send these lines to you in Agincourt	p. 342
I sought scent, and found it in your hair	p. 388
I wouldn't frirk Uranus	p. 440
I wrote on the beach, with a stick of salty wood	p. 403
I'm weary of working with words that you write	p. 436
Ich nem' ein' Zigarett'	p. 444
I'll crash the moon	p. 446
Ill-Starred	p. 85
Imagination is your true Apollo	p. 406
In Memoriam Wystan Hugh Auden KMT	p. 398
In this spinning room, reduced to a common noun	p. 379
Independence Day	p. 390
J.B.W.	p. 404
Jack's Story	p. 367
January 1	p. 351
Joseph the Jew (1)	p. 65
Joseph the Jew (2)	p. 65
Jubilee Anthem. For Malayan Boys' Voices	p. 420
Land where the birds have no song, the flowers	p. 374
Late as I am, but blame the mails, not me (to Mr Selwyn C. Gamble)	p. 343
Lex for law and order	p. 439
Limbo	p. 87
Limerick: The Angler Of Kinsale	p. 399
Local Industry	p. 92
Lot at Home	p. 66
Lot in Repose	p. 67