

The background of the cover is a dark, textured blue with irregular, blotchy shapes in a muted brown or olive green. Overlaid on this background are several radishes, their outlines and veins rendered in a bright, glowing white or light yellow. The radishes are positioned in the center and lower half of the cover, with their roots pointing downwards. The overall aesthetic is graphic and somewhat somber, reflecting the journal's theme of health and illness.

Health and Illness

RUSTED RADISHES
BEIRUT LITERARY AND ART JOURNAL