

The Elise has always been about steering feel, ride and poise – and it still is

MARK WALTON ON THE SWANSONG OF A LOTUS LEGEND, P84

The Issues

- 48 LIFE OF A SCION
The heirs to corporate empires may have many advantages in life but they face serious challenges, too. James Ashton explores the ups and downs of dynasties
- 52 HIGH FLYER
The double-decker Airbus A380 has fallen out of favour with many airlines, but not with Emirates boss Sir Tim Clark. John Arlidge asks him why
- 54 GOLDEN THREAD
Alec Marsh charts the rise of the wealth management boutique and meets some of the major players in this niche market
- 62 TRASH TALK
Is it time to banish billionaires to the dustbin of history, asks Edwin Smith

Arcadia

- 65 NICK FOULKES
The beauty of backgammon
- 66 DAISY DUNN
How we can still learn from the Greek concept of xenia today
- 67 SIMON AKAM
What the British Army can tell us about leadership and performance
- 68 SAM LEITH
Why the demise of the 'deckle-edge' book severs a link with our past
- 69 ANNA SOLOMON
Beauty entrepreneur Bobbi Brown on her love for the work of British artist Endless
- 70 MAX JOHNSON
In need of a great escape? Make a beeline for Bali

The Good Life

- 74 STYLE COUNSEL
Our suggestions for clothing to take you out of lockdown
- 78 ONE TO WATCH
FP Journe's tantalising timepieces
- 82 MAKING WAVES
X Shore's new luxury electric boat is a minimalist marvel says Gareth Herincx
- 84 END OF THE ROAD
Mark Walton takes the Lotus Elise 240 Sport Final Edition for a spin
- 88 BLAST FROM THE PAST
Boss & Co may have a sure-fire winner with its new '1812 Edition' gun
- 90 IN THE PINK
Rosé champagne has become the toast of the town, says Jonathan Ray
- 92 SPLENDID ISOLATION
Edwin Smith discovers the perfect post-pandemic travel destination
- 98 MIDAS
With star of stage and screen Sean Bean

