

jazzwise

JULY 2021 Contents

REGULARS

4-16 News

Big names for Barbican EFG LJF shows... live Mingus and Miles LPs on Rhino... Brit Jazz vinyl explosion...

14-15 Jazz in Japan

We speak to collector Tony Higgins on Japan's rich and exciting jazz scene and offer you your very own J-Jazz primer!

18-19 Taking Off

Bands Archipelago and Strata are the up-and-comers to watch this month

34-53 Reviews

This month's essential new and archival albums reviewed, plus an Album Interview with bass boss Lars Danielsson on his new album with his all-star Liberetto band

54-55 Subscriptions

Save money with our hot summer print and digital subs packages!

57 Books

58 The Player

Drummer Tristan Banks

60 Instrument Reviews

61 Livestream Reviews

62-63 Gig Guide

Nationwide live listings

66 Letters

Say your thing...

FEATURES

20 Tomorrow's Warriors At 30

We celebrate three decades of extraordinary work by Gary Crosby and Janine Irons, whose jazz education and talent development programmes have shaped the lives of over 10,000 young musicians – many of whom are now international names exporting UK jazz music and culture around the world

24 Bill Evans

Sixty years after Sunday at the Village Vanguard and Waltz for Debby, which changed the sound of the piano trio forever, we look at why Evans remains a pianistic touchstone today, as an abundance of remastered and newly-issued archival recordings are released

28 Rosie Frater-Taylor

Combining stunning guitar playing with her artful mix of jazz and folk, this fast-rising young singer-songwriter (left) is forging a distinctive sound that embraces improvisation and accessibility in equal measure – much like her hero George Benson

30 Alan Barnes

The renowned multi-reedist talks frankly about how he survived Covid-19 and used lockdown to write a new suite that both opened up new creative possibilities and helped save his sanity in these most trying times

33 Chris Potter

The US sax star reveals the Miles Davis album that changed his life in Turning Point

Photo: Patricia Pascal

For the latest breaking news and much more visit www.jazzwise.com