

WELCOME

SARAH WAKELY
Editor-in-chief

I love this time of year, as the sun starts to set ever earlier in the day, and the cool mornings and evenings betray autumn's imminent arrival. There's something really wonderful about seeing the British countryside in all its orange, brown and gold glory, especially on a walk through crisp fallen leaves. If you're stuck for inspiration on where to go, be sure to turn to p46 – there you'll find 10 beautiful destinations to head for this season, allowing you to enjoy your own autumnal adventure.

But we're not just focusing on 2021 at the moment – behind the scenes we're busy pulling together details of all the runners and riders for our upcoming Awards 2022, the winners of which will be announced online during a very special week, starting 27 September. Do be sure to join us at www.practicalmotorhome.com/awards – we'd love to see you there!
