

IndependentNurse

October 2021 | £3.99

For primary care and community nurses

www.independentnurse.co.uk

IN THIS ISSUE

News

RCN will hold strike ballot over 3% pay award

Nurses are to be asked whether they would be willing to take industrial action in an indicative ballot p4

News

Initiative to keep nurses healthy this winter

The RCN is encouraging members to prioritise their own physical and mental health p4

News

New Government campaign on mental health

An initiative to improve mental wellbeing after the pandemic has been launched p5

News

'Gamechanging' sickle cell drug to be rolled out

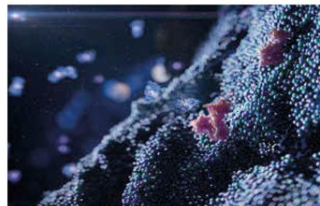

The first new treatment for sickle cell disease in over 20 years has been announced p5

RESOURCES
Events and training for primary care nurses p29

Childhood atopic eczema: management and diagnosis

Eczema could affect as many as one in five children in the UK. Suneeta Kochhar details how nurses can treat children diagnosed with this often painful condition p16

NEWS FOCUS: A new drug could replace statins for CVD p6

Hormone replacement therapy: an update for nurses p20

Techniques for de-escalating patient aggression p27