

BJN

British Journal of Nursing

Volume 30 Number 19 ◆ 28 October 2021–10 November 2021

CLINICAL

1118 ANAPHYLAXIS

Managing anaphylaxis in adults
Sam Curry

SPECIAL SUPPLEMENT INSIDE

S1 IV AND VASCULAR ACCESS
Between pages 1148 and 1149

FOCUS

1110 ONCOLOGY

Impact of nurses' emotional intelligence on the implementation of a professional practice model in cancer care
Majeda A Al-Ruzzieh and Omar Ayaad

ADVANCED CLINICAL PRACTICE

1124 EDUCATION

The reliability and validity of the OSCE as an assessment of capability within advanced practitioner curricula
Kevin Stirling and Colette Henderson

PROFESSIONAL

1127 DONOR CONSENT

Applying utilitarianism to the presumed consent system for organ donation to consider the moral pros and cons
Jelena Morris and Janet Holt

1132 STAFF SUPPORT SERVICE

Peer assessment after clinical exposure (PACE): an evaluation of structured peer support for staff in emergency care
Kristina Sillitoe et al

1107 EDITORIAL

Medication errors: a positive safety culture is key
Ian Peate

1108 COMMENT

Future challenges for nursing
Liz Charalambous

1140 PUBLIC HEALTH

Antimicrobial stewardship: nurses' critical role in preventing antimicrobial resistance
Rita Newland et al

1142 PATIENT SAFETY

Balancing the books or balancing the scales: what should drive reforms?
John Tingle

1144 LEGAL

Questioning the validity of an advanced decision to refuse treatment
Richard Griffith

1146 BJN AWARDS

Providing gastrointestinal nurse education during the pandemic
Jennifer Burch

1149 FOSTER'S PHILOSOPHY

Creating a safe space to speak up
Sam Foster

A DOUBLE-BLIND PEER-REVIEWED JOURNAL